

NORTH BAY MAN AMONG NEW ARRIVALS IN BRITAIN

Among the most recent contingent of Canadian soldiers, sailors and airmen to arrive at an undisclosed port in Great Britain was Lieutenant Proctor C. Neil, North Bay. Lieutenant Neil, along with other Canadian officers, is shown in the above photograph aboard the huge transport which took them to England. From left to right, are: Lieut. G. E. Cain, Saint John, N.B.; Lieut. C. E. Lavalee, Quebec; Lieut. P. C. Neil, North Bay; Lieut. G. D. Lamothe, Arvida, Que., and Lieut. J. D. Schroeder, of Guelph. (Lieutenant Neil is well known in North Bay.